

In this seminar, Dr. Jose Antonio will cover the mechanisms and real-world application of sports supplements. He will cover the latest supplements that have been demonstrated to improve body composition, increase lean body mass, and improve exercise performance. He will also bust some of the myths associated with dietary supplements.